UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

2020 SMALL WORKS ROSTER

The University of Washington (University) is soliciting applications for its Small Works Roster from qualified contractors. Small Works projects are defined by statute as those projects with an estimated construction cost of less than $350,000.

The University's Small Works Roster has three categories: General Contractors, Mechanical Contractors, and Electrical Contractors. The University may utilize the Small Works Roster to solicit bids and award contracts for construction, renovation, remodeling, demolition, or repairs for projects at the University's Seattle, Tacoma, and Bothell campuses, and other University locations. The University does not utilize the Small Works Roster for work at the University's Medical Centers or for specialized research facilities projects. Firms interested in performing work at the University's Medical Centers are encouraged to respond to the Critical Patient Care and Specialized Research Facilities Roster Request for Qualifications, which can be accessed at the following website address: <https://facilities.uw.edu/projects/business-opportunities/solicitations>.

Contractors currently accepted in any of the Small Works Roster categories do not have to reapply for inclusion in that category.

Deadline: There is no deadline for submission of applications which will be accepted at any time during the year.
