

Have a spooky Halloween! October 2020

Cleaned out your closet while in quarantine?

Bring gently used women's or unisex clothing to the barrel near the café, which will go to the Jubilee's Women's Center!

They will also take other new items such as deodorant, shoes, feminine hygiene products, umbrellas, etc.

Blood Drive!

Oct. 20th-23rd and Oct. 28th-30th

Made by appointment only!

9am-5pm @ North Cafeteria

New elevator limit capacity of 3!

Please continue maintaining social distance by standing on these markers in elevators.

GREEN News

Trout Unlimited Film Screening: Spawning Grounds | Oct 21, 12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

Join Brad Throssell, Executive Director of the Washington Council of Trout Unlimited, for a screening of the award-winning film Spawning Grounds. Brad will introduce the film and its mission and take questions following the screening. Running time ~45 minutes. Organized by the UW Combined Fund Drive as part of their Lunch & Learn series. Register here to receive a Zoom link.

Climate Dialog 2020 | Oct 21, 1:30 – 3:30 p.m.

Open to students, staff, and faculty from around the region, this year's climate dialog theme is climate justice. Visit <https://preview.tinyurl.com/y5pshw3q> for more information and to register.

Sustainability Film Series

While the Sustainability Film Series is on hiatus, we thought you might enjoy watching Being Hear (9:44). Created by an Emmy-winning acoustic ecologist, this beautiful and peaceful film combines nature's myriad soundscapes with insights about the importance of listening and paying attention.