

Equipment & Tool Management

University-owned equipment, tools, materials, and supplies may only be used in the performance of University job duties and may never be used for personal use. UW Facilities tools and equipment may not be loaned to contractors or students without written approval. Salvaged, broken, or junked equipment, tools, materials, and supplies are University property, are not for personal use, and may not be removed from the campus.